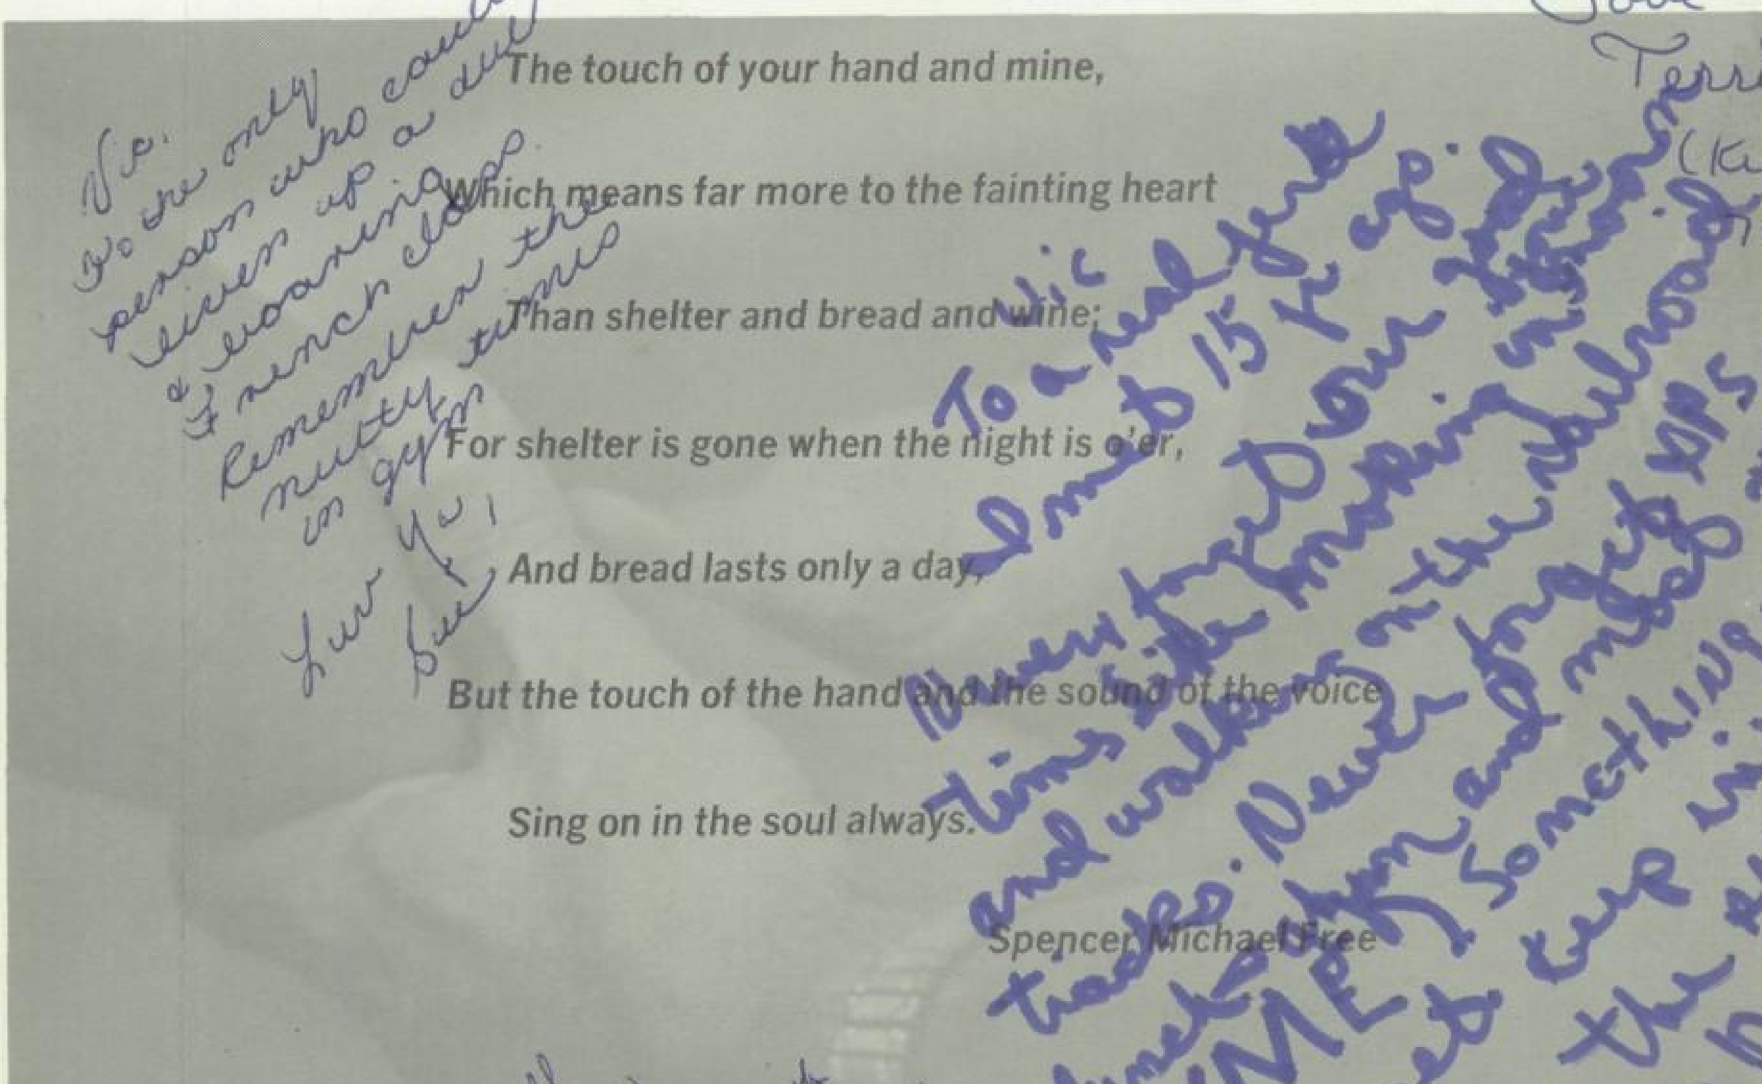
'Tis the human touch in this world that counts,



The touch of your hand and mine,

Which means far more to the fainting heart

Than shelter and bread and wine;

For shelter is gone when the night is o'er,

And bread lasts only a day,

But the touch of the hand and the sound of the voice

Sing on in the soul always.

Spencer Michael Free

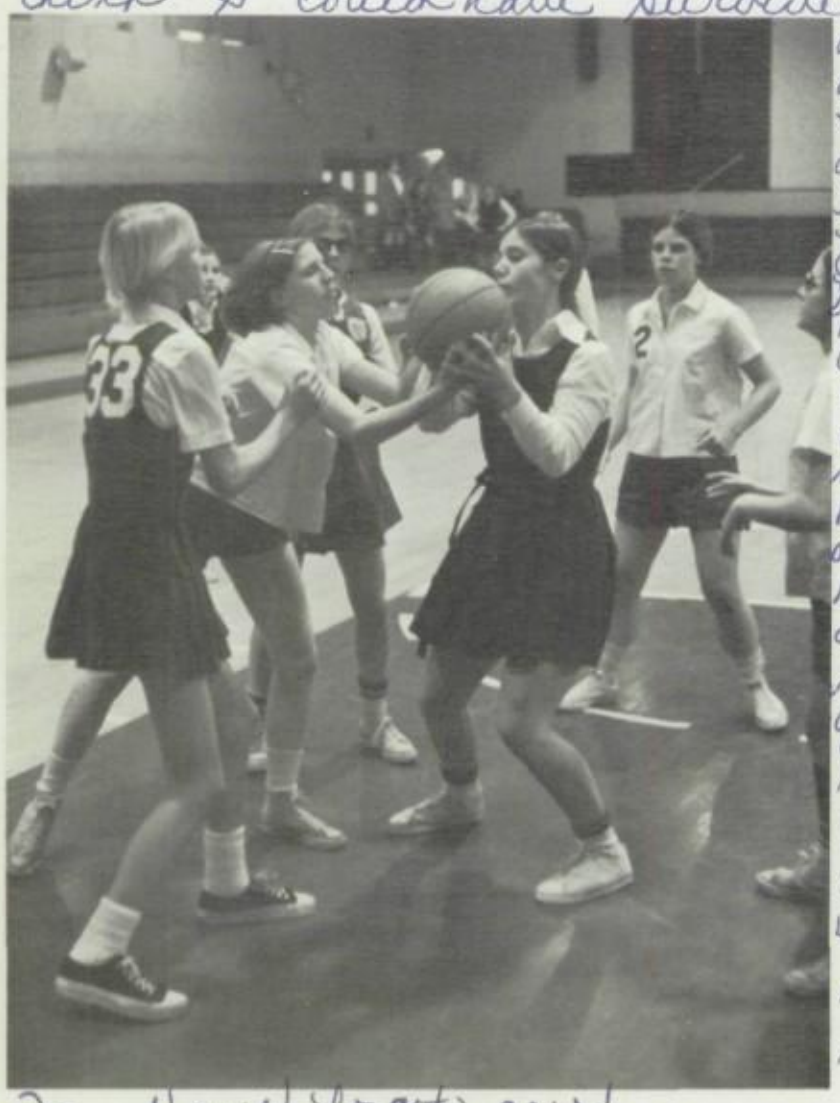
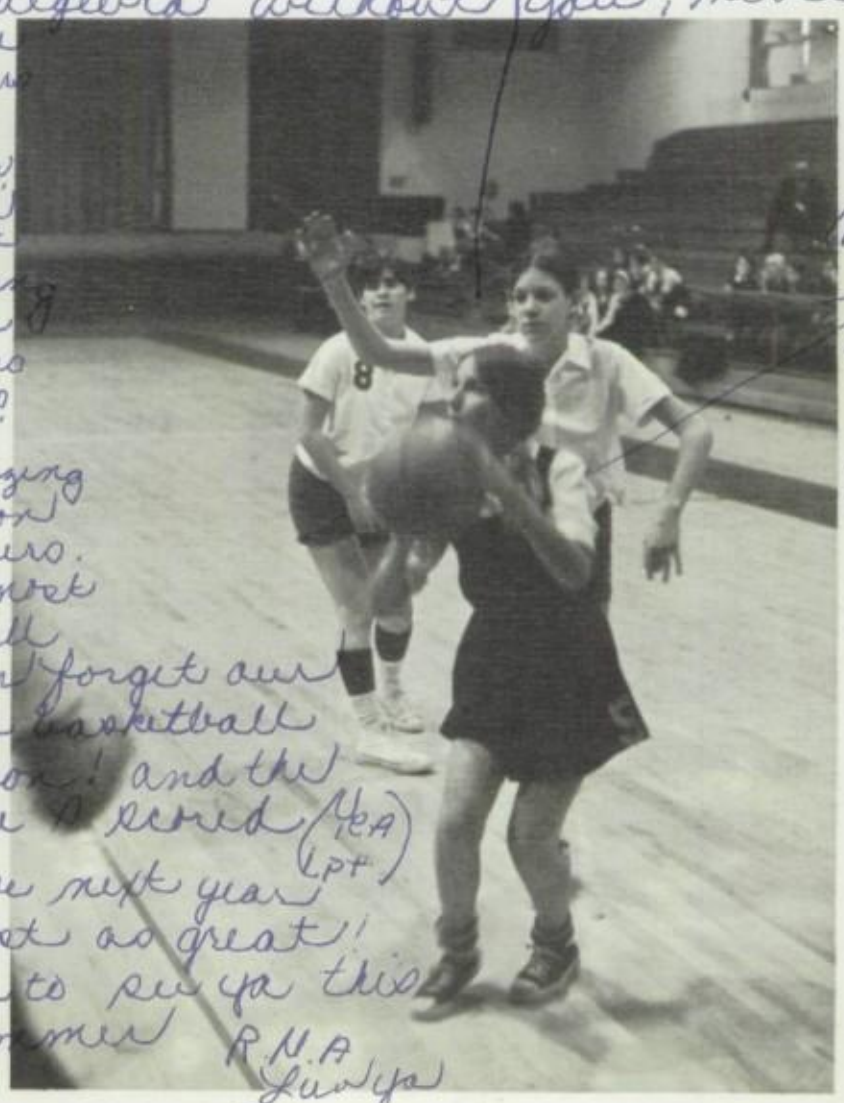
Vicki:
there you are again hogging up all the pictures! Remember all those cool practises with "Frenchie" MECH! Keep up your cool personality & your friendly mind! I hope you understand this card & sure don't! Never remember all those damn boring science classes we had together! Remember anytime you get any more apple cider to give me a buzz. Love ya, Ann '74'



Vicki
To my favorite enemy! Never much we hated each other in the beginning of the year!? I don't think I could have survived algebra without you, never forget how all the answers I got off you. Never forget Gluskin's World Cultures tests and memorizing Religion answers. But most of all never forget our great basketball season! and the game I scored (16 PTS) I hope next year is just as great! Hope to see ya this summer. Love ya Maureen.



P.S. Never forget our relationship with Frenchie.

Another year has passed, full of memories, accomplishments and experiences. If we have captured a few of the friends, joys, and tears of this past year at Holy Name, our work is truly worthwhile.

Before we can say our book is "complete," we must first thank the many people who have made it possible: Cooke Publishing Co., Mr. Robert Rasbridge, Purdon Studios, and all of those who have made the 1971 Vexillum one to remember.

Thanks,
Eddie

Vickie,
